There's No Place Like "YOUR" Home!

When the Wizard found himself in Oz, he made his home in the Emerald City, a place where everything was a bright emerald green. Now, what if one day, you found yourself in Oz? Think about the city where you might like to make your home. What would it look like? What kinds of things would you see? Would it be all one color like the Emerald City? Perhaps your favorite color! Maybe it would have lots of colors. Who knows? Only you! That is... until you draw your own city in the space below, and then you can share it with all your friends so that they can see where you'd live in the magical land of Oz! Have fun!

Cut here.
